

International Economic Relations

- The importance of the membership of the Czech Republic in main international organizations for its position in the world economy.
- International trade with goods and services.
- Selected theories of international trade.
- Current problems of international trade policy.
- International monetary relations.
- The development of the position of the Czech Republic in selected regions (CEE countries, EU) before and after the CZR's EU entry.
- Development of selected factors of competitiveness of the Czech Republic since the 1990s till today.
- External trade balance of the country, balance of payments.
- International environment and its impact on international business.
- The risks of international business and possible way how to limit their impact.
- Foreign direct investments and their impact on the world economy.